ATTACHMENT TO PROOF OF CLAIM FORM OF GOLDMAN SACHS INTERNATIONAL

This proof of claim (the “Claim”) is submitted by Goldman Sachs International, a company duly organized and existing under the laws of England and Wales (“GSI”), which maintains an office at Peterborough Court, 133 Fleet Street, London EC4A 2BB. This attachment is incorporated into the proof of claim form to which it is attached.

As more specifically described below, GSI hereby asserts a claim against Lehman Brothers Special Financing Inc. (“LBSF”) in an amount not less than $999,304,164.16, arising pursuant to the terms and conditions of an ISDA Master Agreement between GSI and LBSF.

I. Background

On September 15, 2008, Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. (“LBHI”) filed a petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”). Thereafter, 18 additional affiliates of LBHI (collectively, the “Debtors”) also filed petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, including LBSF, which filed its petition on October 3, 2008 (such date, the “Petition Date”) [D.I. 1 in Case No. 08-13888 (JMP)]. LBSF’s chapter 11 proceeding is being jointly administered together with the other Debtors under case number 08-13555 (JMP) [D.I. 28 in Case No. 08-13888 (JMP)].

On July 2, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court entered an Order Pursuant to Section 502(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 3003(c)(3) Establishing the Deadline for Filing Proofs of Claim, Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof and Approving the Proof of Claim Form (the “Bar Date Order”) [D.I. 4271 in Case No. 08-13555 (JMP)]. Pursuant to the Bar Date Order, the Bankruptcy Court set September 22, 2009 at 5:00 p.m. as the bar date (the “Bar Date”) for each person or entity to file proofs of claim based on pre-petition claims against LBSF, with certain specific exceptions as provided for in the Bar Date Order. In addition, the Bar Date Order provides that on or before October 22, 2009 at 5:00 pm (the “Questionnaire Deadline”) holders of claims based on amounts owed pursuant to Derivative Contracts or Guarantees (each as defined in the Bar Date Order) must complete the electronic Derivative Questionnaire or Guarantee Questionnaire, as applicable, and electronically upload supporting documentation to a website maintained by Epiq Bankruptcy Solutions, LLC (the “Website”) rather than attach such documents to the proof of claim.

Through this Claim, GSI asserts claims for amounts owed by LBSF to GSI pursuant to Derivative Contracts. In accordance with the Bar Date Order, GSI will complete the Derivative Questionnaire as well as electronically upload supporting documentation to the Website by the Questionnaire Deadline.

II. The Claim

GSI hereby asserts a claim against LBSF arising pursuant to the terms and conditions of the 1992 ISDA Master Agreement (Multicurrency – Cross Border) between GSI and LBSF dated as of February 4, 2003, along with a related Credit Support Annex to the ISDA Master Agreement dated as of the same date and a related Close Out Amount Multilateral Agreement dated August 29, 2008 among GSI, LBSF and other parties (collectively, and together with all schedules and confirmations thereto, and as the same have been amended, supplemented and otherwise modified, the “ISDA Master”). The ISDA Master is subject to one or more of the “safe harbor” provisions of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., 11 U.S.C. §§ 362(b), 546, 553, 555, 556, 559, 560, 561 and 562.

As set forth in the Notice of Event of Default under ISDA Master Agreement dated September 15, 2008, as a result of the commencement of the LBHI bankruptcy proceeding, an Event of Default occurred with respect to LBSF's Credit Support Provider (as defined in the ISDA Master) under Section 5(a)(vii) of the ISDA Master, and GSI designated September 15, 2008 as the Early Termination Date (as defined in the ISDA Master) in respect of all outstanding Transactions.

As detailed in the statement under Section 6(d) of the ISDA Master to be dated September 22, 2009 and to be delivered on such date (including the exhibits attached thereto, the "Calculation Statement"), GSI determined that pursuant to the provisions of the ISDA Master, LBSF owes GSI at least $999,304,164.16 (the "Termination Amount"). GSI hereby asserts an unsecured claim against LBSF for the Termination Amount under the ISDA Master (subject to any right to set-off that might arise from claims that LBSF may assert or has asserted against GSI or otherwise).

As described in the Calculation Statement, GSI and LBSF were parties to over 20,000 Transactions under the ISDA Master with an aggregate notional amount of approximately $265 billion as of the Early Termination Date, covering a variety of transaction types. Beginning on the Early Termination Date, GSI followed a number of procedures to determine the replacement cost associated with the termination of the Terminated Transactions (as defined in the ISDA Master) and determine Close-out Amounts (as defined in the ISDA Master) in accordance with the provisions of the ISDA Master. GSI's efforts in this regard utilized information from a number of sources, including without limitation (i) prices at which transactions were executed that exactly replaced Terminated Transactions (though instances of exact replacement trades were few), (ii) firm quotations and/or indicative quotations from dealers for transactions that would replace all or a portion of Terminated Transactions, or that would replace the material economic substance of all or a portion of Terminated Transactions, (iii) market prices as reflected in “screen shots” for commonly executed trades and indices, or as reported by leading third-party market sources, pricing services, broker surveys and other similar sources, and (iv) GSI proprietary models used in the normal course of its business trading in the relevant markets. The market data yielded by the sources described above were utilized to determine, as of the Early Termination Date (or, in certain cases where a variety of factors made determinations on the Early Termination Date unreasonable or impracticable, in almost every case within two business days after the Early Termination Date) the cost of replacing the material economic terms of such Transactions, as further described below.

The definition of Close-out Amount in the ISDA Master permits GSI, as Determining Party (as defined in the ISDA Master), to determine the Close-out Amount based on the cost it would incur by replacing each Terminated Transaction. The replacement cost to GSI necessarily includes the difference between the mid-market value of the transaction and either the bid price or the offer price, depending on GSI’s side of the market. Applying a bid or offer spread to the mid-market value of each Terminated Transaction on a trade-by-trade basis is a measurement of replacement cost that is permitted by the ISDA Master.

In some cases, however, rather than applying a bid or offer spread to each individual Transaction, GSI determined that replacement cost should be based on the netted bid offer amounts in order to produce a commercially reasonable result. That is, GSI netted out or eliminated bid offer spreads on pairs or groups of Terminated Transactions where the underlying risks offset each other, in whole or in part. Thus it has not included the full replacement cost for each such Transaction; rather, GSI first determined the net risk remaining after such offset based on the mid-market values of the netted transactions, and then calculated the cost of replacing that net risk from its side of the market. For Terminated Transactions that were not offset by others, full replacement cost has been included in the calculation.

The effect of this netting was to significantly reduce the amount of bid-offer spread included in the aggregate cost of replacing the Terminated Transactions, which in turn reduced the amount payable by LBSF to GSI (exclusive of interest and expenses) from the approximate $1.5 billion that would have been payable by LBSF if calculated on a Transaction by Transaction basis, to $997,165,410.27.

Both the application of the contractual netting provisions described above and the exercise of contractual rights under a security agreement or arrangement or other credit enhancement forming a part of or related to the ISDA Master are consistent with and protected by applicable law, including the Bankruptcy Code; nevertheless, should it be determined that such netting or exercise of contractual rights was not effective for any reason, as a precaution GSI hereby asserts, in the alternative, a contingent secured claim for any gross amounts owed by LBSF pursuant to the terms and conditions of the ISDA Master. This alternative contingent claim would be secured by GSI's right to net, recoup, offset and/or apply collateral or credit support as well as any other amounts owed to LBSF under the ISDA Master.¹

Under Section 6(d)(ii) of the ISDA Master, GSI is entitled to interest on the Termination Amount (exclusive of expenses) commencing on September 15, 2008 through the date of payment of the Termination Amount.² Furthermore, under Section 11 of the ISDA Master, GSI is entitled to indemnification of its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including,

² As detailed in the Calculation Statement, interest in the amount of $1,859,167.00 had accrued as of the Petition Date. Interest has continued to accrue through the date hereof and will continue to accrue through the date of payment of the Termination Amount.

without limitation, legal fees and expenses and other costs of collection, by reason of the enforcement or protection of its rights under the ISDA Master.³ GSI makes a claim under the ISDA Master for all such amounts. Because such amounts continue to accrue, the precise amount of interest, costs and expenses cannot be calculated at this time. GSI reserves the right to supplement this Claim with respect to such amounts.

III. Miscellaneous

GSI reserves the right to withdraw, amend, clarify, modify or supplement this Claim, to assert additional claims (including, without limitation, additional administrative expense claims (including, without limitation, misdirected wires and claims arising from postpetition contracts, activity, torts, etc. of LBSF), claims for which a bar date has not yet been set, secured claims and/or general unsecured claims) and/or to assert additional grounds for its claims against LBSF. GSI also reserves all rights accruing to it or its affiliates against LBSF or its estate, and the submission of this Claim is not intended to be and shall not be construed as (a) an election of remedy or (b) a waiver or limitation of any rights of GSI or its affiliates. In addition, GSI reserves the right to supplement this Claim with relevant documents to the extent necessary. Furthermore, GSI reserves the right to withdraw this Claim for any reason whatsoever. GSI reserves all rights and remedies against affiliates of LBSF or any other third parties.

This Claim shall not be deemed to be a waiver of GSI's right (i) to have final orders in noncore matters entered only after de novo review by a District Court Judge, (ii) to trial by jury in any proceeding so triable in these cases or any case, controversy or proceeding related to these cases (to the extent such right has not otherwise been waived), (iii) to have the District Court withdraw the reference in any matter subject to mandatory or discretionary withdrawal, or ³ As detailed in the Calculation Statement, GSI has incurred at least $279,586.89 of such out-of-pocket expenses.

(iv) to any other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs or recoupments to which GSI is or may be entitled, in law or in equity, all of which rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs and recoupments GSI expressly reserves. To the extent that LBSF has made or makes any claims against GSI, GSI reserves its set-off rights, such that all or part of the Claim may be secured to the extent of such set-off rights.
